

Andreas Bohrer

Chief Legal & Corporate Affairs Officer

Lonza Group Ltd

Andreas Bohrer joined Lonza in 2015 and most recently served as Group General Counsel and Company Secretary. Prior to that, he held senior legal roles at Novartis, UBS and law firms in Switzerland and the US.

Andreas has extensive experience as General Counsel in the pharmaceutical, banking, and asset management sectors. His expertise spans Board and corporate governance, as well as M&A and transactional work in both the US and Switzerland.

Career

2025 – present	Chief Legal & Corporate Affairs Officer and Member of the Executive Committee, Lonza Group Ltd
2025 – present	Chair of the Board, SwissHoldings (association of the multinational companies in Switzerland; Board member since 2024)
2025 – present	Vice Chair of the Board, Scienceindustries (association of the life sciences companies in Switzerland; Board member since 2019)
2025 – present	Member of the Executive Board, BIAC/Business at OECD (business association)
2024 – present	Member of the Board Committee, Economiesuisse (association of the Swiss economy; Board member since 2021)
2015 – 2025	Group General Counsel and Company Secretary, Lonza Group Ltd
2014 – 2015	General Counsel and Member of the Executive Committee, Novartis Animal Health Division
2010 – 2014	Head Legal Transactions, Novartis Group
2009 – 2010	General Counsel Switzerland, UBS AG
2004 – 2009	General Counsel and Chief Risk Officer EMEA, UBS Global Asset Management
2003 – 2004	Executive Director, M&A Group Legal, UBS AG
1999 – 2003	Corporate Attorney, Lenz & Staehelin, Zurich and Geneva
1998 – 1999	Corporate Associate, Covington & Burling (Howard Smith & Levin), New York

Education

Finance for Executives, INSEAD, Fontainebleau (FR)
Titular Professor of Law, University of Zurich (CH)
International Executive Programme (IEP), INSEAD (FR/SG)
Habilitation in Law, University of Zurich (CH)
Master of Laws (LLM), New York University (US)
Admitted as attorney-at-law, Zurich (CH)