THE THISTLE AND THE JADE

WHISKY LIST

An East-meets-West voyage across time and oceans. Taking its name from The Thistle and the Jade—the historical work edited by Maggie Keswick celebrating the legacy of merchant enterprise—this collection unites two powerful symbols: the wild, enduring Thistle of Scotland and the timeless, luminous Jade of the Orient.

Mirroring the maritime soul of Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong, our collection is curated not simply as a spirit list, but as a living journey of trade routes, seasoned wood, and distilling craft across three distinct chapters:

Chapter I: The Thistle — Scotland's Great Single Malts

Chapter II: The Jade — Asian Whisky Craft

Chapter III: The Trading Routes — Whiskies of the World

Our whisky selection is served in 50 ml measures.

CHAPTER I: THE THISTLE
SCOTLAND'S GREAT SINGLE MALTS

Honouring the homeland of early merchants.
From the granite warehouses of Speyside and the Lowlands to the salt-swept shores of Campbeltown and the Highlands, discover rare vintage expressions alongside echoes of once-silent stills—treasured pre-closure bottlings from Brora and Rosebank, each preserving the spirit of a bygone era.

ARDBEG 17 YEARS OLD, ARCHIVE BOTTLE

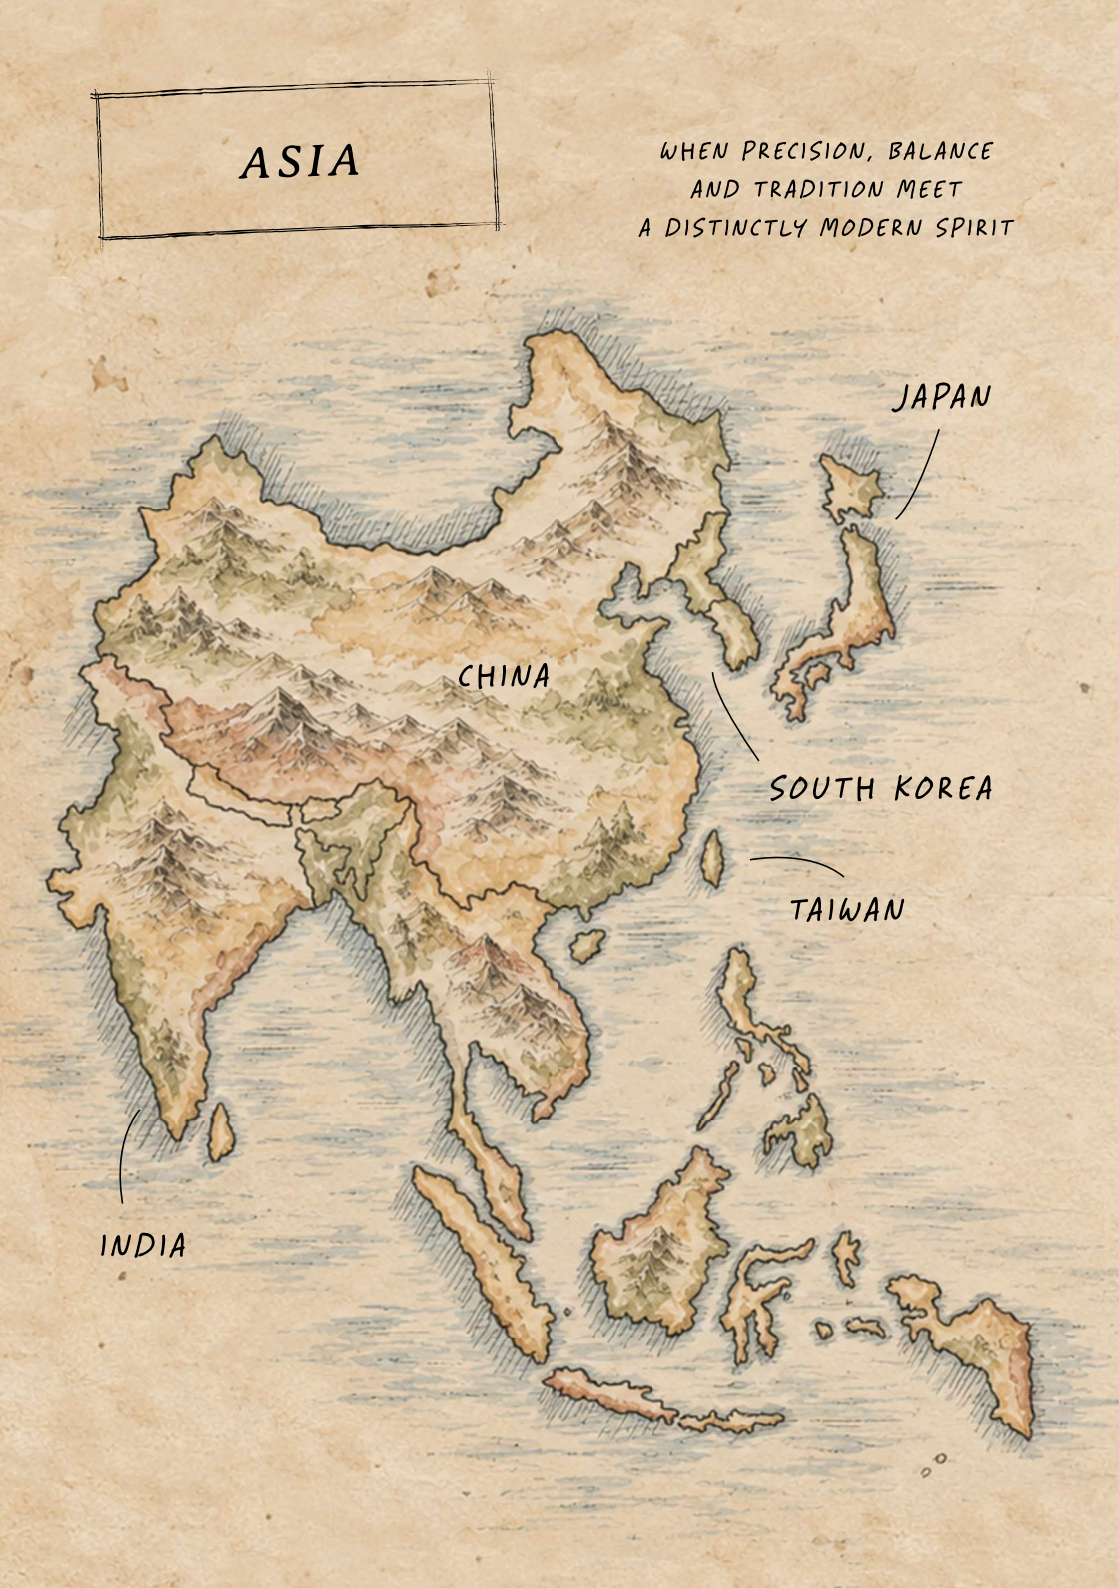

Released in 1997 when the distillery was revived from the brink of closure, this bottling emerged from a limited reserve of mature stock from an earlier era, offering a glimpse into old Ardbeg as its modern legend began. Discontinued around 2004 due to scarce old stocks, it stands as a precious bridge between a nearly lost past and an Islay powerhouse.
