MAYFAIR'S MIDDAY MOMENT: LUNCH AT ATRIUM

In the heart of Mayfair, Atrium Restaurant has unveiled a fresh lunch menu that's equal parts refined and relaxed—ideal for a power business meeting, a pit stop between shopping, or a leisurely catch-up with friends.

Think vibrant crudos, artisanal pizzettas, and starters that surprise—Yellowtail with Ponzu or Beef Tartare with Nashi Pear and Gochujang. Signature mains turn up the drama, from Blue Lobster Spaghetti to 30-day dry-aged Lake District ribeye, or Gochujang Salmon, each dish a celebration of bold flavours and premium ingredients. Lunch at Atrium isn't just a meal—it's a stylish Mayfair moment.

3 ESMERALDA'S BRINGS NEW YORK AFTER-DARK ENERGY TO MAYFAIR

Now open following an exclusive preview, Esmeralda's brings a confident after-dark energy to Mandarin Oriental Mayfair. The lounge trades in New York spirit with a distinctly Mayfair polish, open from 8pm until late, Thursday through Saturday.

Live music sits at its core: a six-piece band moves through soul, funk and disco before a DJ carries the room into house-leaning grooves for the early hours. Cocktails follow a similar rhythm, classics, sharpened and subtly reimagined for a crowd that knows its martinis.

The late-night menu leans into elevated comfort. Signature indulgences include the truffle-Mornay hotdog, seven-way-cut mini beef burgers and the already talked-about Caviar Nugget crowned with 5g of Ossetra caviar. Desserts remain unapologetically playful, from a towering strawberry sundae to a warm, gooey fudge brownie.

4 EASTER MINI MAYFAIR

This Easter, Mini Mayfair invites families to celebrate in the heart of London. Alongside elegant Mayfair living and a charming Easter egg-painting activity for children, young guests can choose between two inspired paths: the Mini-Fashionista, complete with a Selfridges personal shopping experience and fashion-led keepsakes, or the Mini-Maestro, centred on creativity with comic-making and artful treats. It's a refined yet playful city escape designed for stylish little Londoners in the making.

5 SPRING INDULGENCE: THE CAKE CART AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL MAYFAIR

Just outside the hotel, the new Mandarin Oriental Mayfair Cake Cart brings a daily dose of sweetness to Mayfair. From Chelsea Flower Show florals to Wimbledon classics and seasonal delights, each handcrafted cake is presented in the hotel's signature Celadon Green, a serene nod to heritage and craftsmanship. Expertly made with the finest ingredients, the rotating menu turns every visit into a stylish, celebratory moment.

Launching soon.

Reasons to VISIT MAYFAIR

◆ DON'T MISS

Meet the rebel painter of the British art world

On view at the Royal Academy of Arts, this landmark exhibition brings together Rose Wylie's most iconic works alongside brand-new, never-before-seen paintings. Drawing on cinema, celebrity, history and her own lived experience - from Elizabeth I to Marilyn Monroe, the Blitz to Snow White - Wylie's bold, witty canvases celebrate life's small, funny and deeply human moments. Afterwards, guests can head up to Hanover Bar to enjoy The Muse cocktail, created in honour of the Academy.

AP House London

For guests looking to explore Mayfair's luxury scene, we recommend a visit to AP House on Clifford Street. Housed in a stunning Grade II-listed townhouse, this four-floor space blends Audemars Piguet's iconic watchmaking heritage with a relaxed, clubhouse-style vibe. From historic timepieces to live music, whisky tastings, and elegant interiors that feel more like a private home than a shop, it's the perfect stop for collectors or anyone curious about luxury craftsmanship, right in the heart of Mayfair.

◆ CONCIERGE RECOMMENDS

Guests staying at the hotel should take a short stroll to Maison Diptyque on Bond Street—just moments away—for an unforgettable sensory journey combining fragrance, design, and music. Diptyque invites you to visit its reimagined Ephemeral Space at Maison Diptyque, London, a nod to Paris in the early 1960s and the legendary Orphéon jazz club. Experience the spirit of Orphéon as Diptyque celebrates its legacy with a poetic installation where scent and sound come together, through a curated multi-faceted vinyl selections by Superfly Records and the presence of Orphéon throughout. Discover the vibrant era and explore the richness and rhythms of jazz.

Visit the ephemeral space at Maison Diptyque London, 107 New Bond Street. Open now through 20th April.

◆ YOUR FRONT-ROW TABLE

Mazarine at Hanover Square

Just steps from the front of the hotel, Mazarine is one of Mayfair's most exciting new dining addresses—and an effortless choice for guests looking to dine exceptionally close to home. Set directly on Hanover Square, the restaurant brings a polished yet relaxed take on modern French coastal cuisine, from the team behind Sparrow Italia. Inside, warm contemporary interiors by Bolt Design set the tone for an evening that feels both special and unforced, while chef Thierry Laborde delivers seafood-led menus rooted in classical French technique and seasonal precision. Ideal for a spontaneous supper or a leisurely evening out, Mazarine offers hotel guests a refined, front-door escape—no reservations elsewhere required.
